

Judith Anne Tye Becomes Bride of Michael Scott

St. Lawrence Martyr Church was the setting on Feb. 11 for the one o'clock wedding ceremony uniting Miss Judith Anne Tye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Tye, 3522 W. 228th St. and Michael Dorn Scott. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee Scott, 127 Via D'Ora, Hollywood Riviera.

The Rev. Charles Ara officiated at the marriage as Mrs. Mary Stroeger played a background of nuptial music.

At the first chords of the wedding march, Mrs. Edward Crain, as matron of honor, approached the altar. She wore a turquoise lace gown and carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

The came the bride on the arm of her father. Her wedding gown was a street-length imported white lace over satin. A pearl crown held her circular illusion veil and she carried white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Andrew Harris stood as best man and ushers were Russell Plax, Richard Parsons and William Doty.

Timothy Scott, brother of the bridegroom, was the altar boy. The 150 guests greeted the newlyweds at a reception at the home of the bride's parents. Jennifer Tye was in charge of the guest book.

The newly married couple spent a honeymoon at Crestline. The bride was graduated from South High School and attended El Camino College.

Her husband, also a South High graduate, is a law student at Loyola University.
